THE MEN BEHIND THE TEAM

JOHN F. BASSETT

John Bassett, a man who thrives on challenges of any kind, is the managing general partner of the Tampa Bay Bandits and in charge of the franchise's day-by-day operation.

Bassett is one of the most active owners of the U.S.F.L. He serves as Chairman of the League's Executive Committee, the League's Expansion Committee and the League's Marketing Committee.

Bassett hails from Toronto, Canada, where his family owned the Toronto Telegram newspaper and where Bassett received early training as both a news reporter and photographer.

An active sports competitor, Bassett in 1955 was the Canadian Juniors champion in doubles tennis. He was a 1959 member of the Canadian Davis Cup and Pan American teams. Tennis runs through the Bassett household as daughter Carling, 16, already is considered one of the world's leading female players.

In addition to tennis, Bassett currently serves as president of Amulet Pictures, Ltd., a producer of feature motion pictures. Bassett also owns a software computer company, a film company and a real estate firm based in Sarasota, Florida.

He has also been active on the ownership level in professional sports. Bassett was the owner in the World Football League of the Toronto Northmen, who later became the Memphis Southmen, perhaps the most well-known franchise in the WFL. Bassett also owned the Birmingham Bulls of the World Hockey Association. His family has held a long-standing interest in hockey and at one time co-owned the Toronto Maple Leafs of the NHL.

Bassett was honored in 1973 with the Man of the Year award for Toronto's B'nai Brith Sportsman Lodge.

Bassett and his wife Susan are the parents of four children and reside in both Toronto and Sarasota.

STEPHEN ARKY

John Bassett, Stephen Arky and Burt Reynolds head up the management team that will direct the Tampa Bay Bandits franchise.

Arky's interest in professional football stemmed from his initial desire to place a U.S.F.L. franchise in Miami. He and Bassett instead pooled their collective resources, then added Reynolds to the group.

Arky is president of the law firm of Arky, Freed, Stearns, Watson and Greer, P.A. with offices in Tampa, Miami and Orlando, Florida.

Educated at Washington University in St. Louis where he received both his bachelor's degree and his juris doctor degree, Arky has enjoyed a successful career in several different pursuits in addition to the law.

He is a director of Great American Banks, Inc., a Florida bank holding company; Founders Financial Corporation, an insurance holding company headquartered in Tampa; the Insurance Exchange of the Americas, Inc., and Florida International University.

Arky and his wife Marlin are the parents of two children. Mrs. Arky is the daughter of Ambassador Marvin Warner, owner of the Birmingham Stallions franchise.

BURT REYNOLDS

Long before he became an American institution for his work in the movie industry, Burt Reyonlds played football. He was a running back and defensive back at Florida State, but a 1957 injury curtailed his gridiron days and moved him in the direction of an acting career.

A Florida native, Reynolds now makes his home in Jupiter, Florida, where he owns a dinner theatre. He is extremely active in fund-raising projects to benefit Florida State and often has assisted the school in scholarship recruiting.

THE MEN BEHIND THE TEAM

Reynolds' acting credits are many, and he has gained additional acclaim for his work as a film director as well.

One of his best-known films, "The Longest Yard," had a football theme as Reynolds starred as the quarterback of a prison team that played the penitentiary guards.

And he is certainly the original Bandit, having popularized that role in the film "Smokey and the Bandit," in which he co-starred with Sally Field and Jackie Gleason.

HEAD COACH

STEVE SPURRIER

Innovative, imaginative, but most of all successful, these were the terms often used to describe Steve Spurrier's debut as head coach of the Tampa Bay Bandits.

Picked by the experts to finish near the bottom of the USFL standings Spurrier guided the Bandits to an 11-7 record. He had the team in contention for a playoff spot entering the final week of the season.

"Our performances in the three preseason scrimmage games, which we won, gave us the feeling that we had a pretty good chance to compete in the league and for the championship.

While not making the playoffs was a disappointment, I think overall it was a year which gave everyone involved with the Bandits reason to believe 1984 could be a banner year."

Before assuming control of the Bandits, Spurrier served his coaching apprenticeship in the college ranks. He began coaching as an assistant to Doug Dickey at his alma mater, the University of Florida in 1978. The following year, he moved to Georgia Tech, where he was an assistant to Pepper Rodgers. In 1980, he bacame the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Duke University. During Spurrier's tenure at Duke, the Blue Devils were ranked in the NCAA top ten in team offense.

HEAD COACH

Augmenting Spurrier's development as a coach was an impressive career as a college and professional quarterback. At the University of Florida, Spurrier rewrote the school record book in an outstanding three-year stint with the Gators. The culmination of his career was winning the Heisman Trophy in 1966.

A first round draft pick of San Francisco in 1967, Spurrier spent 9 years in the 49er organization. In 1976 he became the first quarterback for the NFL expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Spurrier says much of his coaching philosophy is a blend of what he learned as a player and as a college coach. However, he is always willing to add new ideas.

"I have always felt that any coach or any person should have an attitude that if there is a better way to do anything, then go ahead and change it. My offense with the Bandits has changed a little bit from what I did at Duke."

Away from coaching, Spurrier enjoys playing golf and jogging. He and his wife Jerri have 3 children, Lisa (16), Amy (13), and Steve (12).

LEWIS "BUGSY" ENGELBERG

Lewis "Bugsy" Engelberg, a man who has played a vital role in the on-field success of the team, is the director of football operations. The former offensive guard at East Tennessee State suffered a knee injury, which ended his playing days and channeled his football career to the behind the scenes status.

Engelberg transferred to Florida State, where he served as student coach and also worked with kickers Grant Guthrie and Duane Carroll, both of whom played in the NFL. Engelberg caught the eye of John Rauch, current Bandit assistant coach who was then head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

Rauch took Engelberg with him on coaching stops with the Raiders, the Buffalo Bills and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. In 1973, Engelberg got a job as executive vice president and director of player personnel of the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League.

When the WFL folded, Engelberg got out of football and started his own business in Orlando. He stayed there until he received a call from John Bassett and the rest is the successful history of the Tampa Bay Bandits.

Engelberg and his wife Stephanie have two sons, Mike (8) and Rick (5).

USFL COMMISSIONER

CHET SIMMONS

USFL Commissioner Chet Simmons is no stranger to the challenges of building new sports enterprises.

In the late 1950's, he helped transform a small production company — Sports Programs, Inc. — into what is now ABC Sports. Simmons guided and helped develop the American Football League's first television package.

As a major sports executive for NBC (1964-79), including the presidency of NBC Sports (1977-79), Simmons developed Sports-World and was involved in securing the 1980 Summer Olympics for the network. Earlier, Simmons helped engineer the AFL's move to NBC, a move regarded as key to the AFL's survival and subsequent growth.

To round out his quarter of a century in television, Simmons accepted the challenge of president and chief executive officer of ESPN, which, under his guidance (1979-82) became the largest advertiser-supported cable network.

On June 14, 1982, Simmons was named USFL Commissioner. He guided the new League through an inaugural campaign which saw over 2½ million fans view USFL action in person; which was a final television rating a full rating point above the original projections; and which established the USFL as a major sports enterprise.

The signing of Heisman Trophy winners Herschel Walker and Mike Rozier, the continued development of first-year USFL signees such as Kelvin Bryant, Trumaine Johnson, Irv Eatman, Tim Spencer, et. al, and the addition of star-quality NFL veterans, has provided the League with an increased sense of identity going into its second season. "What we're dealing with is the sport of professional football, certainly the most popular sport in this country," Simmons says. "I do not believe there is too much football these days. What there has been is too much football that hasn't been interesting.

"The biggest challenge we face in 1984 is to continue to build the USFL in the eyes of the fans, the media and the marketplace," he says. "We have a bigger job in front of us now than before. In our first year, we had a curiosity factor at work, which we do not have anymore. Thus, we have accelerated our marketing strategy in each League city which hopefully will result in greater in-stadium attendance and increased television ratings."

To meet this end, Simmons sees the League continuing to develop star players from the college ranks and continuing its selected signings of NFL veterans.

"We will continue to sell the attractiveness of attending football games in our season," he says. "We will heavily promote our television and radio games on ABC, ESPN and ABC Radio.

"With our six expansion teams broadening our exposure base, I can only see the television numbers going up," Simmons says, adding that the realignment of the franchises into two conferences (Eastern & Western, with two divisions each) "will create natural rivalries and important games," thereby accelerating interest.

Chester R. Simmons was born in New York City and raised in Ossining, N.Y. and Pawtucket, R.I. An alumnus of the University of Alabama, he participated in one of the first mass media programs offered at the undergraduate level. He did his graduate work in radio and television at Boston University.

Simmons and his wife, Harriet, have four children and live in Cos Cob, CT.

The 1984 USFL Championship Game will be played in Tampa Stadium on July 15, 1984. The winning team will take home the Championship Trophy.
